

Realizing the Value of Responsible Investment 9:00am-10:30am, 16 June 2012

Overview

This high-level plenary session will showcase progress made in incorporating sustainability in mainstream investments and how the emergence of responsible owners is driving corporate sustainability. The session will also address the long-term logic of responsible investment and the inter-locking role of investors, companies and policy makers in creating more sustainable capital markets.

Programme

Moderator:

- Rob Lake, Director of Responsible Investment , Principles for Responsible Investment

Speakers:

- Dr. Wolfgang Engshuber, Chair, PRI Advisory Council (PRIAC) & Senior Advisor, Munich Re (formerly President, Corporate Centers, Munich Re America)
- Elias Masilela, Chief Executive Officer, Public Investment Corporation, South Africa
- René Sanda, Chief Investment Officer, Caixa de Previdência dos Funcionários do Banco do Brasil - PREVI
- David Pitt-Watson, Chair, Hermes Focus Asset Management & Chair, UNEP FI Investment Commission

Agenda

- Development and progress of the Principles for Responsible Investment
- The vision of a long-term investor: sustainability and long-term responsibility from the perspective of a sovereign wealth fund
- Sustainability and responsible investment: the view from Brazil
- Responsible companies need responsible owners

